Guided Alaska Rafting

Vision Quest Adventures offers guided Alaska rafting trips to the Wrangell St. Elias National Park and the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge. Each destination offers several rivers that are amazing and we specialize in flexible, customized itineraries. These are all inclusive Alaska rafting tours that guarantee exceptional quality.

WRANGELL ST. ELIAS NATIONAL PARK & PRESERVE

The Wrangell St. Elias National Park is located in south-central Alaska, approximately 200 miles east of Anchorage and is accessible by road or chartered air service. Its Americas largest National Park and is recognized as a World Heritage Site by the international community. The famous Copper river flows along the border of the park and offers one of the most unique rafting trips in Alaska. Tour departs from Anchorage.

ARCTIC NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE (ANWR)

Located in the northern Brooks Range of Alaska, the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge is Alaska's largest and most remote Refuge. We offer rafting and inflatable canoe trips to several rivers within the refuge including the Kongakut, Hulahula, Sheenjek and Canning rivers. We offer biologist guided caribou tours and an opportunity to explore the small native village of Kaktovic. We offer multi sport tours that combine hiking, kayaking or canoeing with your rafting trip. R/T transportation from Fairbanks is provided.
