Guided Alaska Winter Tours

Iditarod / Yukon Quest Sled Dog Race

Have you always dreamed of experiencing Alaska's famous dog sled races? Vision Quest Adventures offers tours to Alaska's two premier races, the Iditarod and the Yukon Quest! Not only will you get the opportunity to meet the mushers but we'll combine all the best activities in the region with your tour including personal sled dog rides, a glacier / wildlife cruise to Kenai Fjords National Park, a trip to Dawson, or a relaxing night at Chena Hot Springs Resort! These all inclusive, guided Alaska winter tours depart from Anchorage or Fairbanks.

The World Ice Carving Championships

Every spring Fairbanks explodes to life with the International Ice Carving Championships and Alaska's biggest sled dog sprint race, the Open North American. We'll combine these events with all the best activities in the region including a visit to Chena Hot Springs for a relaxing evening looking for Northern Lights while you soak in the outdoor spring pools! You will also explore Denali National Park for a peak at the tallest mountain in North America. More activities include dog sled rides, cross country skiing, snow shoeing, and snow machine rides. We also offer a workshop focusing on winter photography. This exceptional, guided tour departs from Fairbanks.

Spring Skiing in Prince William Sound

Prince William Sound, located one hour south of Anchorage is where you'll find some of the finest spring skiing in Alaska. We are the first outfitter to offer tele marking and cross country skiing tours to this remote collection of fjords. Long sunny days, warm temperatures and deep snow characterize this exceptional spring skiing destination! Accessed by boat from the small town of Whittier, these tours offer plenty of options including boat supported skiing tours with deluxe lodging for up to six, snow shoeing and even some kayaking for a nice change of pace! These all inclusive, guided tours depart from Anchorage.
